4th Festival NN – New Narratives

For three days, the 4th Festival NN will focus on the topic of confidence under the motto 'Trust me – Trust yourself!' Experimental contributions from the fields of dance, performance, installation and discourse will trace the questions of what drives and touches us, what makes us cold and stiff.

From narrative perspectives, four performances give cause for reflection and dialogue, for research and exploration.

Admission: 10 €, 6 € / dayticket Saturday: 15 €, 10 €
